

Experimental Aircraft Association

Chapter 67

NOBLESVILLE AIRPORT
14782 PROMISE ROAD
NOBLESVILLE, INDIANA

MINUTES OF May 2, 2005 MEETING

Lynn Taylor led the pledge of allegiance at 7:38PM.

GUESTS: Mr. Dick Beaver, former member was introduced. Adam Higginbotham was introduced. He thanked the chapter for sponsoring him to this summer's EAA Air Academy. Lynn asked Adam for a report in September.

TREASURER'S REPORT: Dan Daubenspeck announced that national dues are paid.

NEWSLETTER: Rick Hixson apologized for his absence from the April meeting and consequent lack of a newsletter. He promised a newsletter for the May meeting.

FAA TOWER TOUR: Mike Greer reported on the April 8 tour of the control tower at Indianapolis International Airport. Nine members attended. The tour was quite interesting. The new 200' tower is structurally complete. Contractors are now wiring the tower. It should be complete this fall. A view from the tower gave one a view of the site of the proposed midfield terminal. Lynn suggested that this should be an annual event.

YOUNG EAGLES: Rick Hixson thanked all of the volunteers that helped out with the Young Eagles program on April 17. A report on the program is attached.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST: Lynn Taylor reminded the members that the next Pancake Breakfast is scheduled Saturday, June 11 at 8AM RAIN or SHINE. Rather than attempt to start setup on Friday, Lynn suggested all volunteers be on hand by 6:30AM Saturday. Lynn suggested that final coordination would be handled at the June 6 regular meeting.

AVIATION NEWS: Smith Field in Ft. Wayne has a new lease on life.

Several members reported on Sun N Fun. The event is considerably less crowded than Air Rendezvous. 2005 Sun N Fun also appeared less crowded than previous years. Vendors have time to talk to individual customers.

Mike Greer and Rick Hixson reported on upcoming Sport Air workshops in Indianapolis. The workshops will be held August 13-14 at Vincennes airport facilities.

An FAA Wings safety seminar is scheduled at the Alexandria Airport at 7PM, May 3.

NEXT MEETING: The next meeting is Monday, June 6, 2005 at 7:30pm.

Submitted by Richard Hixson