

MINUTES OF October 3, 2005 MEETING

Lynn Taylor lead the pledge of allegiance at 7:30PM.

GUESTS: Bruce Morse attended his first meeting. He is working on his sport pilot endorsement. Jeff Hants was a guest of Larry Jacobi. He enjoyed his first flight lesson on Sunday, October 2. Rob McCormick rejoined the chapter after a one year hiatus. Adam Higginbotham attended his third meeting of Chapter 67. Adam, a student, was sponsored by the Chapter to the EAA Air Academy this summer. Adam agreed to return to talk about his experience.

OFFICER ELECTIONS: Lynn Taylor noted election of officers will take place at the November meeting. He asked members to consider nominations for the next meeting.

T-SHIRTS, HATS: Lynn Taylor displayed new T-shirts and hats for Chapter 67. The knit shirts are a very nice royal blue. Hats come in navy blue or tan. T-shirts are $12. Hats are $14 and $16. These items were available at the meeting, and will also be available at the barbecue this weekend.

The club has paid for the artwork for a chapter logo. Additional clothing items are available from Blue Sky Promotions, 2018 Cherry, Noblesville, IN. Phone number is (317) 774-3601.

FLYING STORIES: Maurice Hobson and Tom McNutt cooked for over 1500 people per day at the Mount Comfort air show. John Ogle reported a barbecue fly-in this Saturday at the Glendale Airport, a 2,000' grass strip close to Kokomo.

Phil Brown reported passing his check ride and oral exam for CFI. The examiner was Arnold Summers. Phil is available for biannual flight reviews and instruction. His number is (317) 403-9186

Rick Hixson reported visiting the Old Rhinebeck Aerodrome in Rhinebeck, NY. Rick will give a brief presentation and show a video at the November meeting.

Allan Brown reported attending a fly in at Rockford, IL. There were 150 aircraft in attendance, including 15 Stinsons and a Ford Tri motor.

Eric Podzielinski reported an unusual story about the interest of a prospective documentary film producer to do a program on one of Eric's Ercoupes.

BUILDER'S REPORTS: Walt Fritz reported putting wheel pants and gear leg fairings on his current RV-3 project. Phil Brown provided a brief update on progress on his Pober Pixie. Rick Hixson reported on attending the Sheet Metal Basics, Sport Air Workshop, held at Vincennes University in Indianapolis. Rick indicated that the workshop was very hands on and helpful. A Saturday night program on Light Sport Aircraft was quite informative.

BARBECUE: The Chapter 67 Barbecue is scheduled for this Sunday, October 9, 2005 from 12:00 to 3:00PM, RAIN OR SHINE. The following items were discussed:

Food and supplies are planned for 300 attendees. Lynn Taylor, Dan Daubenspeck, and Maurice Hobson are taking care of food and supplies.

The primary entrees will be ½ barbecued chicken, barbecued beef, hot dogs and hamburgers. Lynn Taylor will purchase macaroni and cheese, cole slaw, beans, buns and sides. Cost is $7 for adults, $5 for children.

Members have been asked to bring deserts. Members are asked to meet at 8:00AM to help setup.

Larry Jacobi passed out posters to members and asked that they be distributed throughout the community.

NEXT MEETING: The next meeting is Monday, November 7, 2005 at 7:30pm. The Christmas Party is scheduled for Friday, December 9, 2005 at Lutz's Steakhouse.
