

EAA 67

Noblesville, IN

May 2, 2016

1. Brian Crull opened the meeting with the Pledge of Allegiance at 7:15 pm following our pitch in dinner with featured meatball sandwiches. Thanks to all who brought dishes to share. Approximately 33 attendees.
2. For those who wish to explore the possibility of using a suite for the Red Bull Air races in October, contact Walter Ney at 317-902-1649. Cost $175/day or $250 for two days including food, beer and wine. Parking Not included.
3. Guests: Rodney Davis.
4. Congratulations to Joseph Ferraro on his first solo in a 172. Larry Jacobs was the instructor.
5. Treasurer Report from Jeff Hammer: $6797,91 in the bank with approximately $800 yet to come in from Young Eagle rides. Hats and T shirts are available. Jeff passed a signup sheet for name tags and sent an email confirmation, cost approx. $5.
6. Rob Morris updated the group on the Ercoupe project. He noted that EAA 67 will have insurance coverage under the EAA policy as an airplane for liability only. MOTION made and seconded to purchase the project for $500, Passed unanimously. A place to store the project is still needed as well as those willing to work on it. Jon will recruit people from EAA 1121 at their next meeting, May 23. Rob Morris will chair the workerbee group and Brad will help out.
7. Our first pancake breakfast of the season will be on Saturday, June 11. For those of you who have worked at the event in the past bring new people, please show up for setup on Friday, free dinner, and Saturday early. Kyle will be our "batter Mixer" as Bill Carr will be out of town. Bill will "train" Kyle in the art and science of mixing the batter. Jon will recruit help from EAA 1121. For all those working the Flightline, everyone must attend a safety briefing from Jeff.

8. When you get a chance, take a look at the upcoming EAA Sport Aviation article on Judy Birchler! Brian sent an email link.
9. Best wishes to George Spellman as he starts his trip along Route 66 on May 9.
10. Alex asked if anyone knows of an aviation related, unpaid internship for 3 weeks starting, January, 2017. Alex is a senior in high school.
11. Bill Carr works with a group that restores bicycles and gives them to homeless people. If you have a bike to donate, contact Bill.
12. EAA 67 will not participate in the June CAF warbird expo at MQJ.
13. Jeff noted that the FAA is seeking comments on a proposed part 23 revision that would allow avionics and other equipment that currently are used in experimental aircraft to be installed in certificated airplanes. Post meeting note: Brian Crull sent an email with a link to comment to the FAA.
14. Larry Jacoby then shared a visual and oral summary of his month long trip to New Zealand. Highlight was attendance at a Warbird Airshow in Wanaka.
